

Bios and Contact Info for Medical & Legal Panelists

50+ Finishing Well Series

Medical Panelists

Jerry Hood, M.D.

Dr. Hood is a 1973 graduate of the University of Kansas (BA, Chemistry). He received his Doctor of Medicine degree at KU in 1976. He completed residencies at the University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill, in Pediatrics (1979), Preventive Medicine (1981), and received an MPH in Epidemiology in 1981. In 1983 Dr. Hood completed an Internal Medicine residency at Baylor College of Medicine. He practiced medicine at the Austin Diagnostic Clinic from 1983 until he retired in 2019. Jerry and his wife Betty live in Austin.

(512) 771-0796 (cell). jlhood000@gmail.com.

Don Hunt, M.D.

Dr. Hunt graduated from Texas Tech University (B.S., Chemistry), and UT Southwestern Medical School in Dallas (M.D.), followed by post-graduate training in Internal Medicine, a Surgical Residency at the University of Mississippi, Jackson, and a Vascular Surgery Fellowship back in Dallas at Baylor University Medical Center, where he practiced vascular surgery for 18 years, followed by 12 years in Wilmington, Delaware, and 2 years serving as a medical missionary in Jos, Nigeria. Don and his wife Delia have been married for over fifty years, live in Horseshoe Bay and worship at All Saints. (830) 998-0198 (cell). deldonsf@aol.com.

Stephen Hurd, M.D.

Dr. Hurd is board certified in internal medicine, but left the practice over 30 years ago to pursue business interests. Stephen serves as a ruling elder at All Saints Austin (PCA). Stephen and his wife Susan have been married 40 years and have four adult children, one grandchild, and one on the way. They have walked the end of life path with Stephen's deceased mother (from cancer in 1992), step-mother (from cancer in 2015), and Susan's father (sudden death in 2001). They are currently serving their two elderly surviving parents with moderate dementia and one daughter and one son-in-law who are cancer survivors. (512) 517-1842 (cell). stephurd@gmail.com.

Harry Moore, M.D.

Dr. Moore is a certified Functional Medicine doctor with thirty-nine years of experience in the medical profession. He started his career as a Family Practitioner and transitioned into holistic care in 2003 after seeing the astounding results in many patients. Since 1982 Dr. Moore has maintained a board certification status in Family Medicine. In 2017 he was certified by the Institute of Functional Medicine. He purposely sees his patients through the lens of functional and traditional medicine. Dr. Moore has been married to Joanne Owen Moore for forty-two years. They have six children and twelve grandchildren.

(251) 359-1143 (cell). harry.moore.md@gmail.com. www.drharrymoore.com

Bios and Contact Info for Medical & Legal Panelists

50+ Finishing Well Series

Legal Panelists

Rev. Michael Barber

Rev. Barber earned his M.Div. (Cum Laude) from Covenant Theological Seminary, St. Louis, MO, in 2007. He is member of the South Texas Presbytery of the Presbyterian Church in America (PCA) and serves as lead Chaplain at St. David's Medical Center where he's been Manager/Director and chair of its Clinical Ethics Committee since 2011. Rev. Barber is a board-certified chaplain with the Association of Professional Chaplains and has served as a hospital chaplain in Austin for ten years. He is married to Gretchen, an RN by trade, and they have two young boys (Samuel and Joseph) and a baby girl (Caroline). (512) 632-4547 (cell). maikelbaba@gmail.com.

Dick Brown, Esq.

Mr. Brown is a fourth generation Texas lawyer, graduating from St. Mary's Law School in San Antonio (J.D., '72) after his undergraduate degree at UT Austin in Mechanical Engineering (B.S.M.E). In 1991 Dick became a founding partner of Brown & LaCallade, P.C., where he is its President and in charge of their Austin office. Dick is Board Certified in Estate Planning and Probate Law by the Texas Board of Legal Specialization. He is a member of the Estate Planning Council of Central Texas, the Society of Financial Service Professionals, the Real Estate, Probate & Trust Law Section of the State Bar of Texas, the Probate and Estate Planning Section of the Austin Bar Association, and Wealth Counsel. After many years traveling the world to help corporate clients, Dick now restricts his law practice to helping individuals and small business owners deal with today and plan for the future. Dick and his wife Cinda have two adult daughters who live in the Austin and Hill Country area. (512) 330-9802 (cell). dickbrown@lawyer.com.

Rev. John Ratliff

Rev. Ratliff earned his undergraduate degree in 1974 from Texas Tech University (B.A., English & History) and divinity degree in 1982 from Dallas Theological Seminary (Th.M.). After serving churches in pastoral ministry for several years, Rev. Ratliff founded the Probe Center Austin (Probe Ministries) and served as its director for over a decade. Thereafter he planted Christ the King PCA in Austin, and served as its Senior Pastor for 5 years. Rev. Ratliff currently ministers as Chaplain and Bereavement Program Coordinator for Amedisys Hospice in Austin and San Marcos. John and Niki, his wife of 45 years, have 2 sons. (512) 917-8021 (cell). ratliff.john.a@gmail.com.

All panelists are members of All Saints Austin (PCA) or its Presbytery.