STRENGTH FOR TODAY

*"Strength for today
and bright hope for tomorrow,"*

So the words of the old hymn go. Many of the great, familiar hymns have heart-wrenching stories behind them of suffering, miraculous provision, and perseverance. But the author of this hymn, Thomas Chisholm, led a remarkably unremarkable life, in a variety of commonplace occupations, and spent his last days in the Methodist home for the Aged in New Jersey. He wrote this now-beloved hymn out of a realization that God was at work in the common, the mundane, the ordinary.

That is what Lent calls us to do - to strip away the frills, the drama, the distractions that occupy so much of our time so that we might see God working. The main call, and the first word spoken over us in Lent is the word "remember." On Ash Wednesday we are told, "Remember you are dust. And to dust you shall return." We are called to remember our own mortality.

But along with that comes another remembering. A remembering that draws us along the lenten journey to Easter. We are called to remember God's faithfulness, God's greatest acts of love and mercy to us while we were yet sinners.

This year's Lent devotional guide centers on the actions of remembering, repenting, and returning, that we might at last rest in the sure and certain knowledge of God's goodness and the hope of the resurrection.

We invite you to use it with friends, family, roommates, Formation Groups, or individually. There is space next to each day's readings and prayers to write a brief note about where you saw God's hand at work that day (a great way for children to participate). Remember, it doesn't have to be earth-shattering. The Lord is present in the most basic, the common, and the ordinary in the most powerful ways.

Join us this season in stripping away all that which blinds us to the presence of God, that we might truly see him in his resurrection power and glory on Easter.

Create in me a clean heart, O God.
and renew a right spirit within me.
Create in me a clean heart, O God,
and renew a right spirit within me.

Cast me not away from Thy presence, O

4 Affirmation

I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth. And in Jesus Christ His only Son our Lord; Who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; He descended into hell; the third day He rose again from the dead; He ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence He shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the Holy Ghost; the holy catholic Church; the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting. Amen.

5 Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, Hallowed be Thy Name. Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors. Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil, for Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen.

*(Personal prayers - consider sitting quietly during this time and listening for the Lord's voice.
How might his Word inform and shape your prayers and actions today?)*

Almighty God, Father of all mercies, we your unworthy servants give you humble thanks for all your goodness and loving-kindness to us and to all whom you have made. We bless you for our creation, preservation, and all the blessings of this life; but above all for your immeasurable love in the redemption of the world by our Lord Jesus Christ; for the means of grace, and for the hope of glory. We pray, give us such an awareness of your mercies, that with truly thankful hearts we may show forth your praise, not only with our lips, but in our lives, by giving up our selves to your service, and by walking before you in holiness and righteousness all our days; through Jesus Christ our Lord, to whom, with you and the Holy Spirit, be honor and glory throughout all ages. Amen.

Let the weak say "I am strong."
Let the poor say "I am rich."

To the river I will wade.
There my sins are washed away.
From the heavens mercy streams of the Savior's love for me.

Our Father, who art in heaven, Hallowed be Thy Name. Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors. Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil, for Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen.

(Personal prayers for yourself, others, and the world.)

Almighty God, we give you thanks for surrounding us, as daylight fades, with the brightness of the vesper light; and we implore you of your great mercy that, as you enfold us with the radiance of this light, so you would shine into our hearts the brightness of your Holy Spirit; through Jesus Christ our Lord. God be in my head,
And in my understanding;
God be in my eyes,
And in my looking;
God be in my mouth,
And in my speaking;
God be in my heart,
And in my thinking;
God be at my end,
And at my departing.

What the Lord has Done in Me

See music on page 17.

Let the weak say "I am strong."
Let the poor say "I am rich."
Let the blind say "I can see"
what the Lord has done in me.

Refrain: Hosanna! Hosanna! To the Lamb that was slain! Hosanna! Hosanna! Jesus died and rose again!

To the river I will wade.
There my sins are washed away.
From the heavens mercy streams of the Savior's love for me.
Refrain

4 Affirmation

I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth. And in Jesus Christ His only Son our Lord; Who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; He descended into hell; the third day He rose again from the dead; He ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence He shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the Holy Ghost; the holy catholic Church; the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting. Amen.

Almighty God, Father of all mercies, we your unworthy servants give you humble thanks for all your goodness and loving-kindness to us and to all whom you have made. We bless you for our creation, preservation, and all the blessings of this life; but above all for your immeasurable love in the redemption of the world by our Lord Jesus Christ; for the means of grace, and for the hope of glory. We pray, give us such an awareness of your mercies, that with truly thankful hearts we may show forth your praise, not only with our lips, but in our lives, by giving up our selves to your service, and by walking before you in holiness and righteousness all our days; through Jesus Christ our Lord, to whom, with you and the Holy Spirit, be honor and glory throughout all ages. Amen.

Great is Thy Faithfulness

Great is Thy faithfulness, O God my Father;
There is no shadow of turning with Thee;
Thou changest not, Thy compassions, they fail not;
As Thou hast been, Thou forever will be.

Refrain: Great is Thy faithfulness!

Great is Thy faithfulness!
Morning by morning new mercies I see.
All I have needed Thy hand hath provided;
Great is Thy faithfulness, Lord, unto me!

Summer and winter and springtime and harvest,
Sun, moon and stars in their courses above
Join with all nature in manifold witness
To Thy great faithfulness, mercy and love.
Refrain

Pardon for sin and a peace that endureth
Thine own dear presence to cheer and to guide;
Strength for today and bright hope for tomorrow,
Blessings all mine, with ten thousand beside!
Refrain
